

Job Title: Primary Care Physician, Denver, CO
Department: Clinical
Reports to: Director of Operations

GENERAL PURPOSE OF THE JOB

We provide high quality, proactive primary care to adults and children in partnership with local employers or unions. We focus on prevention and wellness, acute and chronic disease management, and maximizing provider-patient relationships. We seek providers who are passionate about providing full-spectrum primary care resulting in top-notch clinical quality, outstanding service, and reduced overall health costs. We offer providers:

- More time with your patients: appointments range from 30 to 60 minutes
- Smaller patient panel (less than half the traditional PCP panel size)
- Fewer administrative and insurance-related tasks
- The opportunity to work within a team of professionals who are passionate about improving the U.S. healthcare system

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Everside Health is a national on-site, near-site and virtual primary care provider on a mission to fix America's broken healthcare delivery model. We are technology-driven and care-obsessed. With our expanding reach, scale, and expertise, we truly make an impact on a national level by serving more clients and improving the health of more people, all while achieving the goal of reducing the total cost of healthcare for employers and organizations. That's why we exist – and our relentless focus through care delivery access, technology, transparency, and relationships drives us every day.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- MD or DO
- Board certified (or eligible) in Family Medicine, or Internal Medicine and Pediatrics
- Willingness to be on call 24/7 for urgent patient needs so we can optimize care quality and reduce unnecessary ER visits (these calls are infrequent)
